

Theme

Level 2 Response:

Think about a feeling
Retelling

Your dad might die. Harry didn't know his dad would be sick but then his dad was in the hospital. He might DIE.

Name a feeling or retell an important part in the story.

Level 3 Response:

Lesson the character learns

Evidence

A life lesson Harry learns is that he should be good to his father. When Harry's dad got sick, Harry felt bad that he hadn't been good to his dad. Harry even yelled at the parrot because he was so mad. He was upset because he knows his dad misses him and he should have visited more.

Name one lesson the character learns

Evidence from the part of the story that shows this lesson.

Level 4 Response:

Theme

Evidence (before the theme)

Evidence (after the theme)

Lesson the character learns

A theme this story develops is that people should be good to their families. Early in the story, Harry visited his dad's nut shop a lot, and was good to him. But then Harry stopped visiting. When Harry's dad got sick Harry felt bad that he hadn't visited his dad. This taught him that he should have been good to his dad.

Name one theme/life lesson you learn from the whole story

Evidence that shows the absence of the theme in the beginning

Evidence that shows the presence of the theme at the end.

Explain what the character learned from the life lesson